Pivotal Moments

Mark 14: 32-42; Matthew 26:36-46; Luke 22:39-46

Notes:

Discussion Questions:

1. How have you thought about the reality of Jesus being fully God and fully man at the same time? Have you embraced both or have you tended to downplay one aspect or the other?
2. Why is it necessary for Jesus to be fully human in order for his death for sin to be applied to us?
3. How are Jesus' prayers in Matthew 26:39,42 examples for us in how we can pray openly with God? How can his example help us surrender our wills to God in our own pivotal moments?
4. In this week's texts, we see that prayer is about aligning ourselves with God. How is your prayer life? What are some ways you can focus more on aligning your heart with God's heart?

Reading for next week: John 18; Mark 14; Matthew 27
